Headteacher's News

Dear Parents,

We have just received notification that we are to be inspected by Ofsted on Monday 30th November and Tuesday 1st December 2009 when we will be welcoming Mr Keith Sadler and his team to the school. Please be sure to ask your child/children for the following paperwork: Ofsted letters, School Inspections - a guide for parents and carers and the parents' questionnaire all of which are coming home tonight. Of course we will be informing you of the outcome of the Inspection.

This week a representative from SCAMPS led a special Guitar Assembly giving the children the opportunity to learn about dynamics and pitch. A range of different music was played on acoustic and electric guitars. Many children have expressed an interest in having Guitar lessons in school and have been given a SCAMPS Guitar flyer outlining all about lessons in school.

The Parent Teacher Association met yesterday afternoon and have asked for as many people as possible to help out on the stalls at the Christmas Fayre next Friday after school from 3.15.p.m. Any offers of help would be fantastic as we have fun raising money to benefit all our children. Please have a think and if you can spare some time, however small, please contact Lisa Baxter and/or Jenny Woodward.

Some Year 3 children visited Charles Kingsley Primary School on Tuesday morning and participated in a thinking skills workshop focusing on a 'Goldilocks and the Three Bears' Challenge.' This was organised by First Business Partnership - the children and Mrs Sakyi had a really good time as they carried out their investigative work.

Have a really good weekend

Best wishes
